Secret Santa's Car Key Party

curated by Zuriel Waters and Steve Mykiety

December 12th 6-8pm press preview

December 13th 6-11pm opening party

The pain and pleasure of watching your work go home with a stranger. The sweet caress of unfamiliar eyes. Life starts anew. Feel the texture and smells of a strange art while mourning with a dull ache for your own. Watch from across the room as they flirt nervously, becoming closer, then retracting, then closer still...

This winter get cozy with Orgy Park and Secret Santa's Car Key Party. A cold weather group show and social gathering in which the artists will go home with each others work much like a couples party. Artworks will correspond to a set of car keys that will be blindly drawn from a hat by the artists during the opening. An evening where we open our minds to the sleaze and splendor, artist-becomes-collector moments where work comes off the walls, wrapped and gone home with their new lovers to be hung as a part of their collection.

Orgy Park has culled from its archive of past artists as well as fresh talent and brooklyn regulars in this collective curation of Zuriel Waters and Steve Mykiety.
